CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

1. Entries should be original works of 2D art, using your own choice of artists medium, depicting the theme of 'Contrast'.
2. The artwork should not have been previously entered in a competition or exhibited but created for this competition.
3. All entries should be accompanied by a brief statement of your inspiration linked to the theme, completed on the back / 2nd page of this form.
4. Entries should be prepared for hanging / display, named and labelled on the back.
5. Entries must be signed in and signed out on collection.
6. Children's age categories: 8 and under, 9-12, 13-16. Children's entries maximum A3 size. The top 5 from each age group will be invited to the Awards Evening, but all entries will be displayed in the Exhibition.

CLOSING DATE

Entries should be delivered to Crowland Abbey on Saturday 9th November 2019 between 10am and 12 noon. To make alternative arrangements prior to this time, please contact artistsofcrowland@outlook.com.

FEES

Artwork to be submitted together with one completed entry form per artwork, and a fee of £5 per artwork for adults - maximum two entries. Free entry for age 16 and under. Entry includes 1 preview ticket for the Awards Evening per artist. Further tickets can be purchased at £5 per ticket. Each ticket includes 1 glass of wine or soft drink and refreshments. Additional tickets available for purchase for family of child entrants.

INSURANCE

Whilst the works of art will be supervised while the Abbey is open to the public and the utmost care will be taken, the organisers are unable to take responsibility for the security of the artwork and paintings and therefore artists should insure their work if they feel it to be appropriate.

ART FOR SALE

Items marked for sale will incur a 20% commission fee payable to Crowland Abbey.

COLLECTION

Artwork can be collected from the Abbey on Sunday 17th November after 3pm or Monday 18th November 2019.

I have read and accept the entry requirements and certify this is my original work.
